223,000 Jobs Across Canada At January 24

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—(CP)—Canada unemployed registered at national employment offices at 223,000 Jan. 24, the labor department yesterday. The new figure was an increase of 21,000 over previous figures for Jan. 15. In the same period the number of unemployed jobs remained practically unchanged at 84,000.

THE DEPARTMENTAL report attributed the surplus of workers over jobs to demobilization of the armed forces, a seasonal lull in industry later this year than usual, 150,000 many veterans delays in finding work, and the new year and the release of workers temporarily employed over the holiday season.

A moderate response was reported to a campaign to find work for 25,000 of whom were still needed.

Miners with certificates were in demand in almost all coal mining areas. Lack of housing in some placements in other districts. A seasonal reduction in construction activity, coupled with continued shortage of building materials eased the demand for building workers.

Regional Summaries of Employment Conditions in Western Canada

Prairies—Unemployed workers 23,000; unfilled jobs 11,000. An unemployment demand for 10,000. Heavy packing plants resulted from increase in the run of cattle and sheep. Government employment office seasonal lull resulted in layoffs.

Rockies—Unemployed workers 20,500; unfilled jobs 8,700. Coastal sawmills resumed operations after two holiday shutdowns and overhaul. About 1,000 woodworkers were needed with semi-skilled workers being referred to many jobs where experienced men were needed. While there was no great activity in shipyards contractors recently awarded were expected to provide increased employment shortly.

NEW WORK on the Hope-Prince George highway and the new gas line at the latter city has absorbed many heavy labor. Openings for skilled workers were reported. Unemployed workers were referred to many jobs where experienced men were needed.

Power sawing machine operators, dry cleaning and laundry workers and electricians were in demand. The number of unemployed applicants, with unfilled jobs in brackets, at various Western Canada employment offices: Calgary 2,000 (600); Edmonton 1,547 (347); Regina 1,000 (380); Saskatoon 1,500 (410); Winnipeg 11,007 (3,360); Port William, Ont. 1,000 (200); New Westminster, B.C. 2,000 (100); Vancouver 18,581 (4,781); Victoria 1,000 (140).

1,000 War Brides Dock at Halifax Sunday Morning

HALIFAX, Feb. 9.—(CP)—The liner Mauritania, converted from a troop carrier to a floating nursing home, is expected to arrive at Halifax early Sunday morning with more than 1,000 civilian passengers aboard, military authorities announced here last night.

The 3,677-ton liner has a total load of 1,078 passengers of which all but 80 were expected to be Canadian service men's dependents. The army lists 481 women and 313 children dependents, the RCMP 70 women and 44 children, and the navy 100 wives and children of war personnel and 200 and two respectively.

Special trains will be used to carry the wives and children to their new homes in Canada.

Big UNO Banquet Shunned by Reds

LONDON, Feb. 9.—(CP)—The Lord Mayor of London brought his high society guests to the first full ceremonial banquet since 1945 to entertain 1,000 delegates at the 15th-Canadian Hall. State Secretary Martin of Canada occupied a place of honor at the head table between Prime Minister Aulais and Foreign Secretary Bevin of Great Britain. The Russian delegate did not accept an invitation to eat at the banquet, but did accept a place at the blue-robe reception.

Only 10 Per Cent of Jap
Balloons Reached America

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—(CP)—The Japanese launched 9,000 bomb-carrying balloons in the direction of North America and 194 were found on continental soil and in the Pacific area between November, 1944, and February, 1946, it was announced last night.

In a JOINT STATEMENT issued simultaneously in Washington and Ottawa, the United States and Canadian armies shared information on the development and purpose of the balloons, technical details of their manufacture, launching methods, bomb load and wind-borne speed, among other things.

Declaring facts that emerged both before and after Japanese defeat, they showed:

1. The Japanese did not expect the balloons would be effective and they were right.

2. They made "remarkably little" use of the balloons campaign in propaganda broadcasts.

3. The balloons stemmed from

Japanese reaction to the first American bombing raid in 1942. It is possible that 900—the 10 per cent estimate—of a Japanese officer—actually did arrive over North America, with the majority crashing into remote areas.

Two main types of balloons were used: the 35-pound high explosive type, average speed of 100 to 150 miles an hour.

Japanese claims that they carried one-third high explosive bombs and two-thirds incendiaries did not hold between late December and early February, 1946. In some cases incendiaries only were charged with the 35-pound high explosive bombs replaced by a 25-pound incendiary.

SIX PERSONS were killed by one of the bombs in Oregon and those were the "tragic result of the handling of the bomb by inexperienced persons." There were no other fatalities.

"Negligible damage was caused by the incendiaries, the only fires resulting being one or two small grass fires."

The joint statement, continuing the information operation on the subject that began in December, 1944, said 191 paper balloons and three rubberized silk balloons were found, "more or less intact" in the United States, Canada, Mexico and the Pacific Ocean area.

In addition, there were 39 recoveries of small fragments of paper or other balloon parts, too incomplete to be classified as a balloon recovered. In all, 283 recoveries of material were made, ranging from small pieces of paper to a few intact balloons.

Found, too, were 32 bombs or bomb fragments and there were 407 reports of sighting in the air. RCMPC and army investigators carried on Canada's day of the study of them until April, 1945. A Canadian anti-bomb force was hastily organized and eventually disbanded.

The statement broke the report down into several sections:

PURPOSES—Their most likely use was transportation of bombs, ranging shots or study of wind currents, transportation of biological warfare agents and propaganda. The first two survived investigation. Desire for retaliation for

Icing Up For Busy Summer

With promise of exceptionally heavy tourist traffic this summer and continued large shipments of food to Europe, 150,000 tons of ice are being stored away at points along western lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway for air-conditioning and freight in 1946. Enough to load a hypothetical freight train 28 miles long, the supply is one of the largest in C.P.R. history. Pictured here is ice being cut for the railway by a barge-draw at St. Boniface Lake near Winnipeg, biggest customer on the line. Piled along to the ice-houses at the local Canadian Pacific terminal yards. Points on western lines receiving large supplies are: Winnipeg, 46,000 tons; Calgary, 20,000 tons; Moose Jaw, 15,000 tons; Port William, 14,000 tons; and Edmonton, 8,500 tons. Early supplies this year going in at Brandon, Regina, Medicine Hat, Edmonton and Calgary.

American bombs started them on their way. Most favorable time was believed to be between late December and early February, but 3,000 balloons were turned loose in March, 1945, the heaviest month.

They were LAUNCHED by one of two methods. When wind velocity was two miles an hour or less, the inflated and loaded balloon was held with doubled ropes passed through the loops in the catenary rope at the equator of the envelope. One end of each holding rope was released simultaneously, the last bomb or incendiary was dropped, and some of the balloons also had another charge to ignite the bag at the same time.

When release of large quantities of paper balloons began, about 10 per cent of those released were incendiaries. They were dropped from the island of Honshu, Japan, which furnished information on altitude. Radio direction finding stations on the island of Honshu obtained bearings on the radioisotope transmitters, which by triangulation indicated the location of the balloons. They were normally traced up to a distance of approximately 1,200 miles, which distance could often be covered in eight to 12 hours, an average speed of 100 to 150 miles per hour.

ACCORDING TO ONE Japanese source, the balloon load varied from a minimum of about 35 pounds to a maximum of about 45 pounds, with the average about 35 pounds. Such variations in loading were indicated by recovering balloons. Some of the balloons had been more heavily loaded than others.

Opposes Removal Of Price Controls
Unalterable opposition to the removal of price controls was expressed Saturday on behalf of the Labor Progressive party by Ben Swankler, the party's Alberta leader.

"The removal of price ceilings on about 300 articles, some of them necessities, will increase the cost of living immediately," Mr. Swankler said as he predicted that Canadian price levels would rise rapidly to the United States standards.

Since the government has ignored labor's demands for retention of price control, the working class will have to make its own way, in order to maintain a decent standard of living, he contended, as he pledged his party's support for any such request.

Fraternalizing Irks Girls on Jap Tour
LOS ANGELES, 5.—(AP)—Sharon Rogers, 21-year-old leader of a touring girl band, arrived here yesterday with the 18 members of her troupe from Yokohama, and told newspapermen that fraternalizing between American service men and Japanese girls is "liable to get boring before it gets hot."

"The slim brunette Chicagoan, whose condemnation last year of American-Jap fraternization in Tokyo interview brought a storm of protest about her remarks, said the practice is indulged in by a minority of American soldiers and declared "it is downright shameful."

OUT OF THE WILDERNESS...
Out of the wilderness of rock and pine, great new Canadian cities have grown. Out of the courage and foresight of the men of the Mining Industry a vast new store of wealth has been opened up for Canada.

From the hit-or-miss methods of the early prospectors mining has developed into an exact and intricate science... A major Canadian industry that pays more than $100,000,000 yearly to its thousands of employees.

It has grown great because men of enterprise were willing to stake their all on their faith in the future.

For that is the pattern of Canada's Way of Life... A pattern that will be repeated as long as men of vision have the freedom to make their dreams come true.

* The Imperial Bank pays tribute to the courage and initiative of the men of the Canadian Mining Industry, and is proud to have been able to play a part in the development of Canada's natural resources.

To Open Drive For On-the-Job
Vets' Training

A drive similar to the rent-a-veteran campaign will go on, and which scored so signal a success in Edmonton, is to be launched Tuesday, Feb. 12, to secure training opportunities for returned men.

THE DEPARTMENT of veterans' affairs' officials who are conducting the new effort on behalf of returned men request the careful cooperation of employers in the city and district.

The term which designates this phase of the government's rehabilitation work is almost self-explanatory.

There are many occupations in modern industry for which no adequate satisfactory training can be given in any pre-employment school. A DVA official accepted the training on the job as an essential of an employer-employer and works under the same conditions as any other employee except that his income may be increased by the assistance of DVA, in order to provide approximately four-fifths of his training period.

OFFICIALS POINT OUT that the employer stands to gain the services of a man who reached the age of maturity under most strenuous conditions, as to training, apprentice and one who has been advised by experienced occupation counsellors as to the type of work he should take up. Nor, since his income is supplemented by payments from his re-establishment fund, is he worried about this income during his training period.

In addition, the employer can feel that he is playing a valuable part in the rehabilitation of a veteran.

When the veteran assumes the new job, a contract is drawn up setting forth the terms under which the employer is to be paid. The contract is to run a determined length of time. It takes to learn the occupation, which is in many cases the payments of his re-establishment fund.

Types of work in which he may be trained by this method are varied. Officials of the Canadian Vocational Training say that any job which requires a period of time to learn may be included, providing the training is systematic. Supervision is provided by regular reports from the employer and by frequent visits from DVA officials to watch the progress of training.

The employer is not forced to retain a veteran he finds to be unsatisfactory. If arrangements can be made for the transfer of any employee when either party agrees that a successful business has been made in the first place.

Girls in Training to Mark CGIT Week

CGIT groups of Edmonton have arranged a special program to mark CGIT week, February 10-14.

Uniforms will be worn at special services in groups throughout the city. Of special interest is the joint Tuna-CGIT Northern Alberta Conference to be held February 13, 14 and 15, and the sponsorship of Miss Jean Smith, former CGIT council president as "Snow Queen" of these events.

The CGIT program came into being to fill the needs of the teen-agers and girls emerging from the post-war period of the First Great War. CGIT is still meeting the needs of the teen-agers.

The Christmas Vesper Service, an increasingly popular annual feature gives the girls an opportunity to share a wonderful evening. The senior girls in a popular current feature. One of CGIT's main features is the popular summer camps in which thousands of girls put the program into practice.

Many Edmonton girls attended camp at Falls last summer. During camp counsel at Kaslo, B.C., Lake, officers were elected for the year. They are Miss Joan Eggleston, Calgary, president, and Miss Margaret Miller, Edmonton, vice-president.

British, Domestic Markets Are Capable of Absorbing Big Amount Best Products

By C. W. TRAVES
Alberta Poultry Commissioner
Present indications are that poultry producers in Alberta will experience a profitable year during 1946, especially if they produce in quantities the top quality eggs and poultry meat that they are capable of producing. Grade "A" Large and Grade "A" Medium are the eggs in demand for shell shipments to Britain, especially the Fall and early Winter eggs, when a bonus of six cents per dozen is paid for these "A" Grade eggs. The domestic market demands and are willing to pay for Grade "A" dressed poultry.

ALBERTA POULTRYMEN and farmers during 1945 continued the splendid export production record that has characterized our poultry industry since the demand for more and more eggs became a part of our war program. Not only did we exceed our quota to the egg drying plants but during 1945 we were second of all provinces in Canada in the quantity of fall and winter fresh eggs shipped in the shell to Britain, although we were not second as far as poultry population was concerned. These were the eggs that received the reasonable bonus.

THE BRITISH MINISTRY of Food has indicated that they will take all the shell eggs of "A" Large and "A" Medium that they can receive from Canada during the Fall and Winter of 1946, and that in addition top quality Spring fresh going into storage will be accepted and all eggs of suitable quality for drying will be accepted as well. The bonus of 6¢ per dozen that pertained from September 1945 to December 1945, will again apply during 1946.

Although notice of the demand for early fall eggs came somewhat late in the season last year, Alberta farmers had purchased large quantities of early chicks to take care of this demand. Present indications are that we can anticipate this year's volume to be at least equal to, if not exceeding, that

Commissioner

C. W. Traves, Alberta poultry commissioner whose services are at the call of Alberta's poultry industry at any time. From his office in the Legislative buildings information is released to those interested in the egg industry all over the province.

There is a move on foot in Britain to expand the domestic flock to the maximum as soon as conditions will permit. We feel that they will never be in the favorable position to produce large quantities of eggs that our Alberta farmers are in, and as long as we continue to produce a quality product when desired, we feel that we can continue to hold our present favorable position.

THE POULTRY meat markets are in a very strong position. During the last two years heavy purchases by American interests for export reduced poultry meat in storage to a low level, and has resulted from meat rationing a high price for the product. It would appear that the Canadian

The steady progress that the Alberta poultry industry has made during the war years is illustrated by the following table:

	Eggs	Meat	Total
1940	9,287,700	$100,000	$ 7,118,000
1941	4,264,000	115,400	8,229,400
1942	6,250,000	165,200	11,515,200
1943	6,447,700	205,900	14,353,600
1944	9,945,375	240,825	18,192,200
1945	11,598,400	289,100	19,566,400

are marketing too high a percentage of eggs in the lower grade brackets and poultry that lacks proper finish to bring top prices. It should be kept in mind that the cheapest egg to produce is a Grade "A" egg and that the cheapest bird to market is the bird that will dress Grade "A" according to the dressed poultry standards. Whether for the domestic market or for export, Alberta producers can never justify the expenditure of time, money and feed on their poultry flocks unless they produce a top quality product at all times.

WE FEEL THAT there is still too large a spread between the price that producers are paid for their live poultry as compared to the price that the consumer pays for the dressed product. However, this does not eliminate the necessity of our producers taking advantage of the extra profit to be gained by putting that last pound of flesh

Ex-Varsity Head Freed on Parole

ATLANTA, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Dr. James Monroe Smith, former president of Louisiana State University, was released on parole Wednesday from the federal penitentiary where he had served 10 months of a 30-month sentence for mail fraud and income tax irregularities. Smith, whose resignation from the university post in 1939 was the first development in Louisiana's famous "political scandals," was met at the prison gates by his wife.

Edmonton Girls Represent CGIT

The above photo shows two Edmonton girls, Miss Shirley Bonnell, left, of Wesley United Church and Miss Jean Smith of Eskdale United Church, who have been chosen to represent typical Canadian girls in Training during CGIT Week, Feb. 10-16. This picture appears in the current issue of "The Torch", official CGIT magazine, and on posters throughout the Dominion.

What Your Church Is Doing Canadian Girls In Training Planning Special Program Throughout Entire Dominion

By HELEN FERRIS

Tomorrow marks the beginning of CGIT Week, Feb. 10-16, when 30,000 Canadian girls in Training will promote their program throughout the Dominion. In Edmonton, 600-700 girls will participate, representing 60 city groups.

WITH EMPHASIS on the future, the theme of CGIT Week is "What's Next"—the Scripture text "What doth the Lord require of thee?" (Micah 6:8) and the hymn "Rise Up, O Men of God." The "Senior Quiz" will be prominently featured in discussions during the week. These are packets of specially-prepared pamphlets answering questions on "What's Next," "What Do I Do in National and International Affairs?" and "What Is My Place in the Church?" These projects are keyed to the problems, privileges, responsibilities and fun of Canadian youth within the church. They will form the basis of a panel discussion by a group of eastern boys and girls broadcast on the CBC network and possibly heard over CKUA at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow.

THE CGIT MOVEMENT was organized 30 years ago by a small group of women to fill the need for a church-centered program for teenage girls entering into the post-war period of World War I. Its purpose is the development of Christian character through vital connection with the whole life of the church.

It is sponsored by the National Girls' Work Board of the Religious Education Council of Canada, and forms part of the church program of first denominations, Presbyterian, Baptist, Church of Christ (Disciples), United Church, and Anglican, though the latter has no group in this city.

THE CGIT is composed of two age-groups under the direction of qualified leaders: intermediate and young people's.

Christian Science

The Lesson-Sermon in the Christian Science churches on Sunday is "The Love and the Mercy." It is based on passages of which the following are typical: "The Lord is good to all; his tender mercies are over all his works." (Psalms 135:4-6). "For Love and from the light and harmony which are the properties of God, the Spirit of God, the good can come." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 280).

TODAY'S MESSAGE

Sin and the Soul

ONE of Tolstoy's celebrated folk tales is that of a drunkard and who was made tutor to two young children and decided to reform because he could not endure the unconscious reproach of their innocent, pure eyes. One never looks into a child's eyes without sensing the beauty with which God has endowed its soul. But what is the reaction when we look into our own souls and behold the pollution caused by sin? Are we spurred to repentance, or tempted into the ultimate folly of despair?

In the 7:30 service, Dr. Rood will speak on the topic "Why I am a Christian." The day of services will conclude with "After Glow" at 9:15 when "The Tindleys" will sing and Dr. Rood will speak. The Rev. J. D. Carlson, who directs these services, invites all who are interested in Bible preaching and soul-winning to join in this opportunity.

It is Christian teaching that no matter how often, or to what degree, he has sinned, man may restore his soul to its pristine glory by sincere repentance and reform. Grave sin not only besmirches the soul, but robs it of life. It is perhaps because they cannot perceive the inner tragedy wrought by sin in their souls that so many persist in their evil, or seek to postpone the day of repentance. The danger here is that they may come to despair of forgiveness and thus commit the greatest of all follies—the denial of God's mercy.

It is good to have such a fear of God that it will deter us from offending Him, and bringing His wrath upon us. The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. But it is far from being all of wisdom. The soul in its relation to God must nurture a holy fear, but it must also be stirred by the desire to love and be loved by its Creator.

If the sinner will remember that God is all-merciful and kind as well as just, he will not only find the path that leads back to God, but discover Him waiting with outstretched arms. There has never yet been a truly repentant sinner whose soul God has not delighted to restore to its pristine glory.

SPORTS EDITOR

DONSPIEL secretary Jim McCall announced Friday night the draw for the British Consols playoffs would be made today and that the competition would get underway either during the afternoon or this evening.

With the filling of the remaining eight brackets of the King Edward Cup, the 32x yesterday, the list of qualifiers was complete, subject to the final play-off of the championship. Apparently 67 rinks are eligible.

TWO CALGARY SKIPS, Glen Williams and Bob Murray and Louis Del of Aene reached the qualifying 16 of either the South Challenge or King Edward, but they are all members of the south rink, Wilbur Mowbray, who is the 16 of both events and it is understood one other city rink is made up of entries from more than one club.

Subject to the committee approving the following rinks are eligible: Robertson, Granite, Cliff Manahan, Royal, Billy Rose, Sedgewick, Johnny Glasgow, Royal, T. Colburn, Doyland, Don A. Hargrove, Royal, Stan Yakubovich, Toif, J. N. Shields, Alberta, Alberta, W. Melnyk, Dewart, George Warren, Vegreville, Fred Veillette, Garry, Fern Roberts, Granite, Wilbur Mowbray, A. Dewart, Dewart, Prairie, John Campbell, Alberta, Avenue, E. B. Olson, Royal, D. Kellner, Granite, J. A. Hargrove, Jasper, E. A. Walters, Viking, Bob John, Granite, Billy Rose, John, John, Viking, Viking, Harold Ritchie, Granite, W. C. Toif, Wainwright, Fred Kemp, Royal, and Cliff Lee, Royal.

CONSOLS PLAYOFFS for the south will commence in Calgary on Feb. 14 and the Calgary secretary has suggested Feb. 15, 16 and 17 as tentative dates for the Alberta tour.

Record Gross Gate Gresco, Jack Fight to Draw In 10-Round Welter Bout

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—(CP)—Selling Johnny Gresco and Beau Jack fight to draw a 10-round draw in Madison Square Garden, New York, before a throng of 15,941 who paid $148,102—largest gross gate pulled in here by a fight of welterweights.

Gresco's slanting rights and left hander than the Beau's counter-slows but a left that cracks like a whip evened the bout for the Negro.

Last night's gate was the third biggest in Garden history, eclipsed in the past only by the $201,613 drawn by Joe Louis and Jack Dempsey and Jim Lynam in 1937. The $180,705 Joe Louis and Buddy Egan lured into the cash registers for their heavyweight title bout four years ago.

It was nearly $16,000 more than the previous high to which two little men had ever played." This was $12,823 which Jack and the Judge Al (Bummy) Davis attracted in 1934.

The judges disagreed on the decision. Referee Ruby Goldstein scored five for Jack, three for Gresco and four for Gresco. Judge Murray gave five rounds to each, five points to each and plumped for a draw. Judge Frank Furber voted five to Gresco, four to Jack and one even.

Yankees Have Two Star 2nd-Sackers

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Lena J. Gordon is kidding, he believes or George Starnes, his rival for the regular second base job on New York Yankees, may be traded.

"What are the Yankees going to do with both of us?" queried Gordon in Chicago where he was en route to join his mates for the trip to Panama to start spring training. "It looks like one of us will be traded or moved to first base, or, draw a fat salary for sitting on the bench."

Carrier Boy Insures Delivery

Here's how one newspaper carrier in the district sees it to that his customers are never late in their desire to keep up with events in their district and in the world. The carrier is Ian Tainish, the town is Clyde and the delivery system strictly that of the four-legged variety. The young salesman for The Edmonton Bulletin claims that with his dog, he can cover his long and large route in less than half an hour.

The ROAD AHEAD

By Capt. HARPER PROWSE, M.L.A.

I WAS shaken the other day when a sound citizen remarked to me, "Of course, as far as the Legion is concerned the veteran can do no wrong." Further investigations confirmed my fear that this opinion is held rather widely among civilians. It is imperative, then, that if the Legion is to accomplish its real purpose, they must take immediate steps to dispel this idea from the minds of the public.

Speeding To An Accident . . .

It's not smart to speed on our slippery streets today. It's just about impossible to stop quickly when coming to an intersection if you are travelling at a high rate of speed, and it's always at a crossing that collisions occur. Take your time—avoid accidents—and keep your eye out of the rear-view mirror and pedestrians out of the hospital.

ROAD REPORTS

Heavy at High Prairie and Valley, badly drifted at Peace River and Neerloo; drifted at Dawson Creek, Fort St. John and Two Hills; roads OK at Athabasca, Lac la Pêche, St. Paul, Burnhead, Edson, Wainwright, Camrose and Thorsby.

A TINY MAN

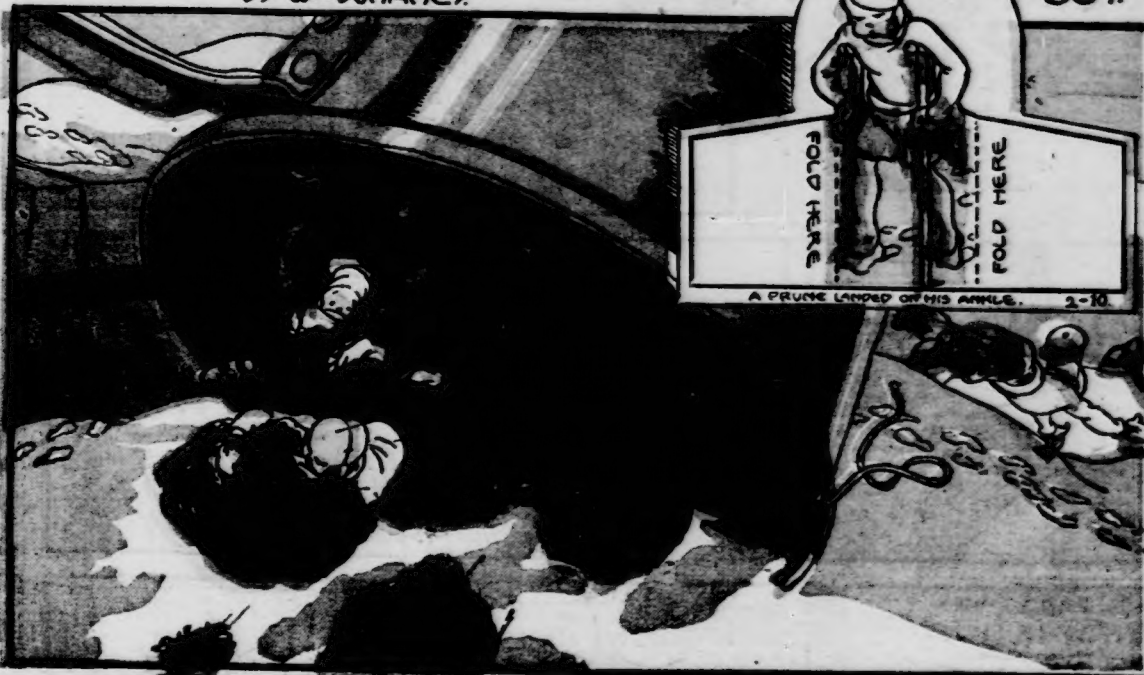

EDDIE WAFF'S mother is one of the very few big people who have ever seen a Teenie Weenie. Eddie's mother lives on the lane that passes near the Teenie Weenie village and right next door to Grandma Pettigob. Eddie's mother really saw a Teenie Weenie, but she was so scared she didn't get a very good look and she let Grandma Pettigob argue her into believing she had seen only a mouse. This is how it happened.

Eddie's mother put some prunes on the stove to cook and then called up Aunt Sarah Snufeldore on the telephone. She forgot all about the prunes and they boiled dry and began to burn. She saw the smoke, grabbed the pan and set it out on the back porch to cool. Not long afterwards the Dunce and Gogo happened to pass near by. The Dunce, who can smell anything to eat a block away, sniffed the burned prunes and climbed up onto the pan to investigate. He could see that they were burned on only one side and that part of the prunes could be used by the Teenie Weenies. He reported his find to the Cook, who was delighted to add prune to the Teenie Weenie diet.

Gogo, the Dunce, the Cook and the Chinaman set off for Eddie's house. They carried a piece of string and a nail for prying the burned fruit from the bottom of the pan. The Dunce and the Cook climbed into the pan to pry two prunes loose and then to tie them, one at a time, to the string. Gogo, who stood on the handle of the pan, would pull the string up and lower each prune to the Chinaman.

The TEENIE WEEENIES

BY Wm. DONAHAY

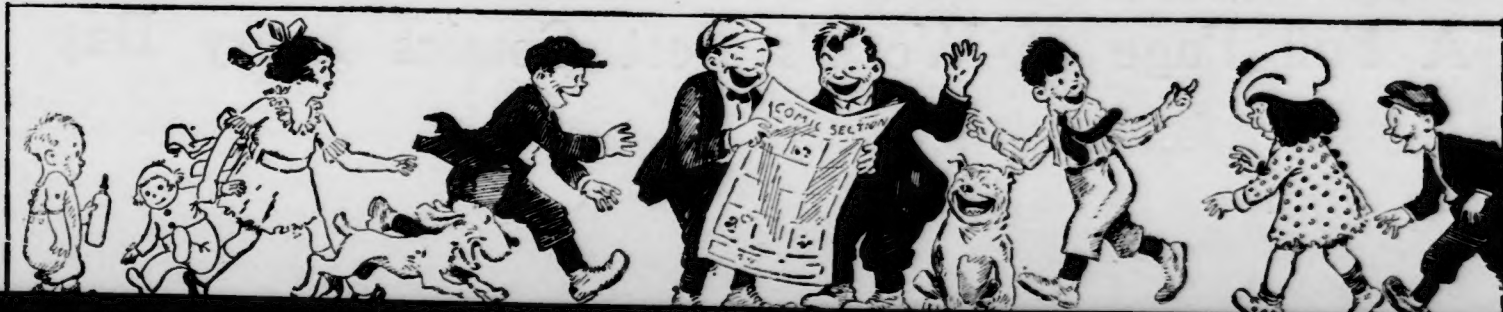

They were prying the prunes loose when suddenly Eddie's mother came out and picked up the pan. Gogo and the Chinaman jumped off the porch and dived out of sight. But the Cook and the Dunce didn't have time to get out of the pan. Eddie's mother saw the Dunce trying to hide behind a prune. Thinking it was a mouse, she dropped the pan and ran into the house. The pan hit the porch floor and bounced off into the deep snow, spilling out the two Teenie Weenies. The snow kept the little men from being hurt except for a sprain the Cook got when a prune landed on his ankle.

When Eddie's mother calmed down a bit, she remembered that what she had seen in the pan looked like a very tiny person. She went over and told Grandma Pettigob all about it.

"Fiddlesticks!" exclaimed Grandma. "What you saw was just a plain old-fashioned mouse."

"Well," Eddie's mother sighed, "it certainly did look like a tiny man with a long pointed hat."
